

ACA, Heart of the South
Section Scholarships ACA Heart of the South Fall Conference

ACA Heart of the South would like to encourage persons with financial need to apply for scholarship money if they are interested in attending the ACA, Heart of the South Fall Conference. Assistance is granted for conference registration fees and/or travel expenses only. Lodging and meals are not covered. We offer these scholarships to enhance the knowledge of the camp community and to help the American Camp Association grow in strength. All applications should be submitted no later than October 10th for the current year's conference. Decisions will be made within one week of this deadline so that you can make your plans for attending the conference.

The ACA, Heart of the South membership committee will process and grant funds based on need and based on the number of scholarships requested. We will do our best to make it possible for you to attend the conference.
